Fund-raiser to benefit Woodlands project

Plan is to construct recreational trails

Thursday, October 14, 2004

By Jeanmarie Mayfield

"Saturday Salon on the River" is the title for an afternoon filled with great music this Saturday to raise money for the Woodlands Trail and Park.

The event, which begins at 2 p.m. at the home of Laurent L. de la Gueronnier at 5201 River Road, will feature performances by soprano Katherine Celine Osborne and pianist James Jenkins, both renowned artists from the Washington, D.C., area. Tickets are $50 and seating is limited.

The event is a fund-raiser for the Woodlands project to construct 19 miles of trails across Lower Coast Algiers and northern Belle Chasse for running, biking, walking, horseback riding, birding and in-line skating.

Officials with the Woodlands Trail and Park Inc. also held a reception recently to launch its Legacy Leaves fund-raising campaign. For information, call Carol Osborne Cowley at 391-9930 or visit the Web site at www.woodlandstrail.com.

Aurora United Methodist Church will hold a work day Saturday from 8 a.m. to noon to prepare for the delivery of pumpkins for the church's Pumpkin Patch. For information, call 394-5483.

The Great Pumpkin Patch will open Tuesday at the church. Storytellers will be available Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Story time will be limited to 30 children per session, so reservations will be required. After-school hours will be held for scouts and other groups. Pumpkins also can be purchased at the patch. For information, call Shelly Neeb at 394-5483.

Aurora also will hold a blood drive Sunday from 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Walk-ins are always welcome.

Also at Aurora United Methodist on Sunday, Ed Kilbourne, a popular artist known for his music, wit and insightful monologues, will perform in concert at 5:30 p.m.
